

TIGP-CBMB

PhD Study & Career Development 博士研究與生涯發展

Coordinators: Dr. Chun-Hung Lin, Dr. Hsiung-Lin Tu

Credit: 1

Schedule: Wednesdays, 14:00-16:00 (12:00-14:00 on 11/25)

Venue: R209, IBC, AS

This course is designed to equip PhD candidates with essential skills and mindset required for a successful academic and professional journey. We cover a broad spectrum of topics, including academic writing, time management, and presentation skills, while also addressing the critical importance of mental health and resilience.

The purpose of the course is to help students (especially for those who just join CBMB) be ready for PhD study and have more thoughts about their future career development. Students will gain diverse perspectives to effectively manage their research processes and strategically plan their long-term career development.

Grading Scheme:

- ♦ Class Participation
- ♦ Attendance (refer to the attendance policy)

Attendance Policy:

- ♦ Unexplained absences: -3 pts per class
- ♦ Late: -1 pt per class

Schedule

Date	Time	Topic	Lecturer
9/9	14:00-16:00	Overview	Dr. Chun-Hung Lin
9/16	14:00-16:00	Work Attitude & Ethics	Dr. Todd Lowary
9/23	14:00-16:00	Proposal Writing	Dr. Lee-Wei Yang
9/30	14:00-16:00	Presentation Skill	Dr. Wan-Chen Lin
10/7	14:00-16:00	Networking & Career Development	Dr. Alfie Chen Dr. Meng-Chiao Ho
10/14	14:00-16:00	Mental Health	Ms. Annie Yang
10/21	14:00-16:00	PhD in Industry	TBD
10/28	14:00-16:00	Midterm (No Class)	N/A
11/4	14:00-16:00	PhD in Academia	TBD
11/11	14:00-16:00	Experience Sharing of PhD Career	Dr. Yunching Chen
11/18	14:00-16:00	Experience Sharing of PhD Career	Dr. Sheng-hong Chen
11/25	12:00-14:00	Student Affairs Committee	Dr. Hsiung-Lin Tu